Chapter 376: The Divine Triad Ascends

Despite sharing his essence and divine power with the Eleven Divine Beings, Sung Jin-Woo's evolution showed no signs of slowing down. His power continued to grow, threatening the balance of existence itself. Realizing the need to further stabilize the multiverse, Sung Jin-Woo turned his attention to his closest allies within the Divine Triad: Ashborn and Sung Su-Ho.

To honor their importance and grant them the space to evolve alongside him, Sung Jin-Woo created two new realms—True Celestial Realm and True Dragon God Realm—both positioned above the Absolute Realm Universe but below the True Absolute One Domain Realm.

The Creation of the Realms

1. True Celestial Realm:
This realm was a dazzling expanse of endless light and divine energy, filled with radiant stars and celestial formations. Its skies shimmered with golden and silver hues, reflecting the infinite wisdom and serenity of its ruler.

Ashborn, the former Shadow Monarch and Sung Jin-Woo's eternal mentor, was entrusted with this realm. His connection to the celestial and shadow energies made him the ideal guardian of such a majestic domain.

2. True Dragon God Realm:
A realm of fiery brilliance and roaring storms, it was filled with colossal floating islands and seas of molten gold. Dragons of unimaginable size soared through the skies, roaring in reverence to their god.

Sung Su-Ho, the son of Sung Jin-Woo and ruler of dragons, was given dominion over this realm. His fiery essence and unyielding strength made him the perfect embodiment of its power.

The Ascension of Ashborn and Sung Su-Ho

With their new realms established, Ashborn and Sung Su-Ho moved from their previous residences—Absolute Castle and Eternis Draconis, respectively—to their own domains.

The divine energy saturating these realms accelerated their evolution:

1. Ashborn:

His physical body expanded to a realm-sized form, encompassing the entirety of the True Celestial Realm.

His wings grew exponentially, reaching 2 million wings, each shimmering with a blend of light and shadow.

He created his own Celestial Throne, an awe-inspiring seat carved from radiant light and shadowy void, symbolizing his dual nature.

2. Sung Su-Ho:

His body grew into a towering, realm-sized form, embodying the essence of dragons and divine might.

His wings multiplied to 1.8 million wings, glowing with fiery energy and golden scales.

He forged the Dragon God's Throne, a massive seat wreathed in flames and adorned with intricate dragon motifs, representing his dominion over all dragons.

The Divine Triad Defined

The establishment of these realms solidified the Divine Triad as the supreme rulers of the multiverse:

1. Sung Jin-Woo, The True Absolute One

Realm: The True Absolute One Domain Realm.

Wings: 60 million wings.

Role: Supreme ruler, creator, and god above all gods.

2. Ashborn, The True Celestial Being

Realm: True Celestial Realm.

Wings: 2 million wings.

Role: Guardian of light, shadow, and the celestial forces of the multiverse.

3. Sung Su-Ho, The True Dragon God

Realm: True Dragon God Realm.

Wings: 1.8 million wings.

Role: God of dragons, fire, and the primal forces of creation.

Unity and Purpose

The Divine Triad now stood as a united force, their realms serving as the foundation of multiversal governance and protection. Though Sung Jin-Woo remained the pinnacle of power, Ashborn and Sung Su-Ho’s ascension brought equilibrium to the Divine Triad, ensuring the multiverse remained in harmony.

However, the creation of these realms and the empowerment of his allies signaled something far greater. The Divine Triad was not merely a symbol of dominion but also a preparation for the unknown challenges that lay beyond the boundaries of the multiverse.

Thus, the multiverse entered a new era, guided by the watchful eyes and unparalleled might of the Divine Triad.
